An interesting Concert.

Walter Potter, once a member of the Scotch Opera Company, has formed in New York a German Opera Company, which is to be heard on Tuesday evening, May 9th. The parts have been sung in the Théâtre Francais, and have been performed by the most accomplished artists. The concerts are to be given at the Théâtre Francais, and will continue for a week. The concerts are free to the public, and the tickets may be obtained at the office of the Théâtre Francais.
